

The Big Cart Is Coming...

The larger-than-life "Got to be NC" Big Cart is powered by a Chevrolet 396 V-8 engine and stands 13' tall and 15' long. It is a sponsor-supported marketing tool used to promote local North Carolina produced products.

Friday, July 31st 11:00 am – 2:00 pm

The one and only "Got to be NC" Big Cart will be in Charlotte

Bring the whole family out to the Charlotte Regional Farmers Market on Friday, July 31st to see the "Got to be NC" Big Cart up close. The cart was put into motion to place emphasis on the numerous agricultural products grown or processed in North Carolina. Think of it as a "Monster Truck for Groceries."

As Seen at the Speedway

The North Carolina Department of Agriculture's "Got to be NC" Big Cart has traveled to Charlotte before making an appearance at the Charlotte Speedway. Now it is coming to Charlotte again to show off its massive engine at the Charlotte Regional Farmers market.
